Case Memorial Library Mission Statement

The mission of the Case Memorial Library is to play a pivotal role in meeting the informational, educational, and cultural needs of the community and to encourage literacy and lifelong learning. Towards this mission, the library provides and organizes information both historical and current through a varied collection of print and non-print materials and electronic technologies. The library shall provide skilled and dedicated staff responsive to our patrons' requests, thus enabling them to access and use the best information available. The library is also strongly committed to offer support for outreach, diversified programs, and activities for all ages.
